

THE WOMEN'S CANADIAN CLUB OF HAMILTON
INVITES NOMINATIONS FOR THE
2023 WOMAN OF SPIRIT AWARD

More than ever before having dynamic, committed and talented citizens makes a difference. The Women's Canadian Club of Hamilton recognizes and celebrates these exceptional women from the Greater Hamilton Area through its Woman of Spirit Award.

The 2023 Woman of Spirit Award is to highlight and celebrate the many and varied achievements of an extraordinary woman from the Greater Hamilton Area. At the Award Luncheon we will be celebrating the spirit of Eileen Vollick. Eileen was the first woman to be licensed as a pilot in Canada. She earned her license in 1928 in Hamilton.

The Women's Canadian Club of Hamilton is a not-for-profit organization. The Club was established in 1912 with the purpose of fostering throughout the greater Hamilton area an interest in all matters of public concern to:

- Strengthen Canadian unity and identity
- Encourage the education and promotion of Canadian heritage and history
- Foster an appreciation and awareness of Canadian culture and traditions to new Canadians

CRITERIA

1. The nominee must be resident in the Greater Hamilton Area.
2. The nominee shall have provided distinguished community service.
3. The nominee shall be selected on the basis of their outstanding contribution to the community.

PROCEDURE

1. All hardcopy submissions must be typed or written in ink. Please use a paper clip, not staples, to hold pages together.
2. The submission shall include a complete and detailed account of the nominee's contribution to the community. It may include letters of reference that support the nomination. A one page letter can be used to express more fluidly the qualities of the individual you are nominating (this would be "Page 4"). Additional photos and supporting materials (press clippings, etc) may be included.
3. A photo of the nominee must be included in the nomination package.
4. The nomination package for the 2022 Woman of Spirit Award must reach the Women's Canadian Club of Hamilton by June 30, 2023.
5. The 2023 Woman of Spirit Award shall be presented at the WCCH Luncheon on October 18, 2023. The recipient is required to be present at the luncheon.

NOMINEES AND THEIR NOMINATOR WILL BE THE LUNCHEON GUESTS OF THE WOMEN'S CANADIAN CLUB OF HAMILTON.
